To walk

LA MARINA DE VALÈNCIA

More than a million m2 encompasses the Marina de València: an attractive setting bathed by the sea that invites you to live all kinds of experiences. In the Marina you will find some of the best terraces for the afternoon; a drink, something to eat, live music, the smell of saltpeter and the Mediterranean sunset.

PASEO MARÍTIMO

This walk connects Valencia with the sea and is one of the most visited gardens, since both in summer to enjoy the beach and the rest of the year to stroll by the sea the influx of public is constant. A bike path runs the length of it, facilitating the enjoyment of the garden or access to the beach.

EL CABANYAL

Poblats Marítims, the main residential neighborhood of El Cabanyal-El Canyameler, is located next to a series of sandy beaches linked by a palm-lined promenade. The surrounding streets attract summer visitors with their souvenir shops, cafes, laid-back restaurants, and bars and clubs open late into the night.

LA FÁBRICA DE HIELO

Modern industrial-chic cultural center with a bar, comedy shows and live music.

08. To Do

In the city

HISTORICAL CENTER OF VALENCIA

With more than 2,000 years of history, the city that has been home to Romans, Visigoths and Muslims since it was founded in 138 BC, boasts one of the largest historical centers in Europe.

Full of art and with the deep mark that all the civilizations that have lived have left on it, Valencia has a rich artistic heritage.

GARDEN OF THE RIVER TURIA

The Turia Garden is a public urban park of 110 ha; located in the old bed of the river Turia in the city of Valencia. This park is one of the most visited in Valencia and Spain. It is the largest purely urban garden in Spain, with a length very close to 10 kilometers.

CIUDAD DE LAS ARTES Y LAS CIENCIAS

The Ciutat de les Arts i les Ciències is an essential visit if you come to Valencia. Work of the Valencian architect Santiago Calatrava, it has several buildings that have become icons of the city. It is a scientific and cultural leisure complex to enjoy with family or friends that today occupies around two kilometers from the old Turia riverbed.

09. Travel ideas

Just outside the city

ALBUFERA NATURAL PARK

The Valencia lagoon is a shallow coastal lagoon (average depth of 1 m) located on the Mediterranean coast to the south of the city of Valencia. It occupies an area of 23.94 km² and is surrounded by 223 km² of rice fields.

L'HORTA NORD

An extension of orchards and towns that as a region adds up to a total of 140. km². It is a good area to take a walk, either on foot or by bicycle, and enjoy the calm of the garden, as well as see the cultivation of different plantations such as tigernut or onion, and the network of irrigation channels. Highly recommended to have a horchata with fartons in: Daniel, Sarriers, Vida, Panach, among others.

PORT SAPLAYA

Port Saplaya is the name of a coastal residential area, in the municipality of Alboraya, in the province of Valencia. It is known for its beaches and for its peculiar urbanism, which has earned it the tourist nickname of "little Venice".

10. Kids Activities

OCEANOGRÀFIC

The largest aquarium in Europe. Located in the avant-garde architectural complex of the Ciutat de les Arts i les Ciències, the Oceanogràfic faithfully reproduces the most important marine ecosystems on the planet.

A whole sea of sensations capable of activating our imagination.

BIOPARC

BIOPARC Valencia is an animal park that has been designed under the concept of zooimmersion. The incorporation of multi-species enclosures and depth of vision makes it possible to contemplate different spaces from the same point and allows you to enjoy a unique experience only appreciable in the wild. Thanks to this, we approach the animals without visible barriers as if we were in the original places of the species.

MUSEO PRINCIPE FELIPE (JARDÍN DEL RÍO TURIA)

The Science Museum is a Spanish museum dedicated to science, technology and the environment located in the complex of the City of Arts and Sciences of the city of Valencia.
